SARAT SINGH CLAIMS NCBA GOLF SERIES TITLE AT GREAT RIFT VALLEY GOLF RESORT

Nairobi: Sunday, 3rd September 2023: Sarat Singh floored a large field of 165 golfers to clinch the overall gross title of the thirteenth leg of the NCBA Golf Series held yesterday at the picturesque Great Rift Valley Golf Resort.

The handicap 4 golfer carded an impressive 75 gross to emerge triumphant on the day.

His efforts were enough to fend off strong competition from fellow golfers, including Njuguna Ndungu (handicap 8) who won the men's gross category with 84 gross. Jimna Mbaru secured the second position in this category after managing 90 gross.

Among the ladies, Nancy Ndungu, playing off handicap 6, emerged top with an impressive score of 84 gross. She beat her club-mate Jane Gikonyo (handicap 8) by 4 shots who came in second.

In the Overall Nett category for men, John Mbuu, playing off handicap 28, emerged as the champion with a score of 72 nett.

Sissel Rene, playing off handicap of 29, clinched the Overall Nett category title among the ladies with an impressive score of 64 nett.

Meanwhile, the junior category witnessed a remarkable display of talent, with Pari Maisuria emerging as the champion. Playing off a handicap of 27, Maisuria's score of 104 gross was sufficient to earn him the bragging rights among the juniors.

In other results, Dr. Mutisya Mutheu and Medrine Kariuki demonstrated precision in their play, securing the Nearest to the Pin titles in the men's and ladies' categories, respectively.

At the same time, Dr Mutisya Mutheu and Medrine Kariuki showcased their remarkable precision, securing the Nearest to the Pin titles among the men and ladies categories, respectively.

Speaking during the prize-giving ceremony of the tournament, NCBA Group Asset Finance Director, Lennox Mugambi said that the series has been a great success as it hits homestretch;

“The 2023 NCBA Golf Series has been a resounding success since its launch in March of this year. Throughout this journey, we have traversed various golf courses across the nation, and met and interacted with so many of our stakeholders in the golf community. Today's event marks the thirteenth instalment in the series, and we still have one more qualifying event scheduled at Sigona Golf Club before reconvening at the same club in December for the Grand Finale,” said Mugambi.
