

PRESS RELEASE

SIGONA GEARS UP FOR FINAL NCBA GOLF SERIES QUALIER EVENT IN KENYA

Nairobi; Thursday, 14th September 2023: The final qualifier leg of the 2023 NCBA Golf Series to be held in Kenya is set to be hosted this Saturday, 16th September 2023 at the Par-72 Sigona Golf Club.

Over 200 golfers are expected to tee-it up at the pristine par-72 golf course for the chance to book a spot in the series Grand Finale set for 1st December 2023. Among the top golfers expected are at the 18-hole course include...

Expressing his enthusiasm ahead of the tournament, NCBA Group MD, John Gachora, remarked;

"The journey has been nothing short of remarkable. We are thrilled with the progress of the series, witnessing a remarkable standard of golf this year, marking a significant step forward. The series has already attracted over 3000 avid golfers, which is a testament to the appreciation for this event within the golfing community. As we move to Sigona this weekend, we yet again anticipate witnessing some of the finest golf action of the series. The turnout is already promising, and we are guaranteed an exceptional golfing experience."

Sigona Golf Club's captain Jimmy Kibugi expressed confidence of a successful event, noting the excellent course conditions and great turnout expected;

"We are delighted to welcome golfers to our course at Sigona Golf Club for the final qualifier event of the 2023 NCBA Golf Series in Kenya. Thanks to the recent rains, our greens are in impeccable condition, and our club members are well-prepared to take on the course. The turnout for the event is exceptional, with a significant number of participants being club members who are well-acquainted with the course, and we therefore expect some good scores on the day," said Kibugi.

The last two qualifying events on the series calendar will be held at the Gymkhana Golf Club, hosting the 16th leg on 30th September, before concluding at the Entebbe Golf Club on 14th October for the final qualifying event.

-ENDS-